

Maple Student Edition is available for Math 337.

Through the Maple Adoption Program, students are entitled to purchase Maple at a significantly discounted price!

TOP 10 REASONS STUDENTS USE MAPLE

1. Maple costs less than many scientific calculators, is far more functional, and will grow with you as you go on to take more advanced courses.
2. Maple includes thousands of features and commands that make it useful in all of your math, engineering and science classes, from high-school and beyond.
3. Maple's Clickable Calculus capabilities allows even novice users to perform complex operations without knowing any special commands or syntax.
4. Thousands of commercial organizations, government research labs and academic institutions use it as a core part of their toolchain, so using Maple now will help you get a head-start on your career.
5. Built-in tutors and task templates offer step-by-step and visual learning environments for many important math topics, including concepts in precalculus and calculus.
6. Via the Möbius Project, access interactive tutors and calculators 24/7 from your PC or mobile device.
7. A continually growing library of Quick Start Tutorials, training videos, and recorded webinars make it easy to master the skills that will help you succeed in your studies.
8. Have a question or a problem? Help is always just a click away via MaplePrimes.com, or Maple's extensive online help documentation.
9. Access and download thousands of free Maple applications, examples and tips in the Application Center.
10. Visually explore a broad set of fundamental concepts with over 140 Math Apps covering functions & graphing, calculus, statistics, physics, and more.

Due to our license at SDSU, where you should be able to get access to Maple at the library and in the computer labs, Maple offers their Student Edition to you for downloading on your computer. The perpetual license is $75, the 1 year license is $55, and the 4 month (semester) license is $35, the code will expire at the end of May. At this time there are limited licenses available, so you should only get a copy for yourself.
